* The Statute of this Year, in French, was printed, by Maclinia or Caxton, soon after the End of the Session of Parliament; and is also included in the Collection of Statutes by Pynson (1497.) The Text now given from Lib. XI. in the Exchequer at Westminster agrees in general with those Printed Copies. Some of the Acts, as inrolled on the Parliament Roll of this Year, were printed in the Edition by Pulton (1618) and some others in subsequent Printed Collections. These differ, in their Preambles and other Particulars, from the correspondent Chapters of the English Text of the Statute as given in the Old Printed Editions, translated from the French Text. MS. Pet; MS. Hatt. 10.; MS. Cott. Nero C. I, and other Manuscript Collections of Statutes contain the Statute of this Year in French, agreeing very nearly with the French Text in the Oldest Printed Copies. The Introductory Clause of the Statute in English is given from the Old Printed Translations.

* The Statutes of this First Year, and of the Third Year, of this King's Reign, have hitherto, as far as has been discovered, been printed in English, in all Collections of the Statutes at large: The French Text now printed, of the Statutes of both these Years, is taken from the Petyt Manuscript No. 8. in the Inner Temple Library, compared with and corrected, by the various Readings in the Notes, from the Hatton Manuscript 10. [Catal. MS. Angl. 4135.] in the Bodleian Library.

In Lib. Scacc. Westm. XI. and many other Manuscripts, the Statutes of these Years are entered in English, agreeing with the Old Printed English Copies, and in Form with the French Text as now printed, beginning as in the succeeding Page, 500; The English Text, of all the Acts contained in the Statute, is now printed from the Inrollment on the Roll of Parliament of this Year: Such Variations as occur in Lib. Scacc. wherewith the Old Printed Copies in general agree, are inserted in the Notes. The French Text does not contain what are inserted in Lib. Scacc. and the Printed Copies, as the concluding Chapters of this and the Third Year; Those Chapters, having heretofore been printed as they appear in Lib. Scacc. are now printed from that Source, as part of the Statute, and also from the Inrollment of the correspondent Acts on the Parliament Rolls, in conformity with the Method pursued in the preceding Chapters of each Session.
